Iowa Credit Union Foundation Announces New Board Members and Board Officers

DES MOINES – The Iowa Credit Union Foundation (ICUF) and its Board of Directors voted to welcome two new members to its board and elected new board officers at its annual meeting in December.

Joining the ICUF Board in 2021 are Donna Dyer-Bischoff and Alejandro Alaniz. Donna is a Sales Market Manager, Credit Union System Relations at CUNA Mutual Group, and Alejandro is a Region Sales Manager for Collins Community Credit Union. Both will join the board to serve three-year terms.

In addition, Ann McMillian, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer at IH Mississippi Valley Credit Union, was elected as Board Chair of the 2021 term. McMillian will be joined by Vice Chair Marian Holmes from Community 1st Credit Union, Treasurer Keith Mesch from Veridian Credit Union and Secretary Jordan Hensley from Peoples Credit Union

ICUF and its Board of Directors are dedicated to the organizational mission to empower people and communities to achieve financial well-being by championing the credit union philosophy of people helping people. ICUF's Board of Directors is made up of representatives from the Iowa credit union industry and like-minded organizations and individuals throughout the state.

“On behalf of the Iowa Credit Union Foundation, I would like to congratulate our two newest board members and welcome them to the team,” said Jaimie Miller, ICUF Executive Director. “Each brings a wealth of unique knowledge and diverse experience that will assist the ICUF Board in fulfilling its mission. We sincerely appreciate their willingness to take a leadership role with ICUF and we look forward to working with them in the future.”
